A pan-India trading portal, National Agriculture Market (NAM) is designed to create a unified national market for agricultural commodities.

- Farmers can showcase their produce online from their nearest market and traders can quote price from anywhere
- Results in increased number of traders and greater competition
- Ensures open price discovery and better returns to farmers
 - On launch day, first big step covers 25 commodities and 21 markets across 8 states
 - To cover 585 markets across the country

Single license across the state

Single point levy of market fees
